Author Visit with James Renner Tuesday, October 17th from 7:00-8:00pm

Join us when author, investigative journalist, and true crime podcaster James Renner will be here to talk about his book Little, Crazy Children.

Set in the idyllic, upscale community of Shaker Heights, OH, Little, Crazy Children examines the 1990 investigation into the murder of 16-year-old Lisa Pruett, who was found stabbed to death behind her boyfriend's family's mansion. Tragically, the case remains unsolved. Renner's dedicated investigation highlights the case's troubling aftershocks as well as the disquieting secrets teens will tell and keep. Books will be available for purchase at the event.

Registration is appreciated

All-Witches Jamboree Tuesday, October 24th at 6:30-8:30pm ~Women Only Event~

This event is the third program in our women only series. For it, we will gather for a magically fun social jamboree. Please conjure up a favorite appetizer or something sweet or mix up a cauldron of your best alchemical brew (non-alcoholic) and bring it with you for sharing. During the jamboree, stop by The Crafty Witch Table to create a potion or spell, then test your powers of recall at The Literary Witch Table.

Registration is required by Saturday, October 21st at the latest.

*Also available at The Jamboree will be Tarot or Oracle readings (your choice) by Michele and Rune Stone Readings by Susan. Readings will run between 15-20 minutes each and the cost per reading will be $20 payable to the reader the evening of the event. Registration by timeslot is required. Contact the library by calling 412-563-4552 or stop by the front desk to register. There are a limited number of timeslots available, and registration is on a first come basis.
